Standards of Dress and Conduct

General Standards

Especially for Youth Program EXPECTATIONS

The following is the Especially for Youth Program's interpretation of dress and appearance standards as found in the For the Strength of Youth booklet and words of our prophets and apostles. Adherence to these standards will be enforced; participants will not be able to check in at the program if they are not appropriately dressed and groomed.

Adherence to these standards will be enforced; participants will not be able to check in at the program if they are not appropriately dressed and groomed.

Modesty Defined

"Modesty is an attitude of humility and decency in dress, grooming, language, and behavior. If you are modest, you do not draw undue attention to yourself. Instead, you seek to glorify God in your body, and in your spirit." (True to the Faith [2004], 106)

Dress and Appearance

"How truly beautiful is a well-groomed young woman who is clean in body and mind. She is a daughter of God in whom her Eternal Father can take pride. How handsome is a young man who is well groomed. He is a son of God worthy of holding the priesthood of God." (President Gordon B. Hinckley, A Prophet's Counsel and Prayer for Youth, Ensign, Jan 2001, 8)

More Than Just a Covering

"I do not hesitate to say that you can be attractive without being immodest. You can be refreshing and buoyant and beautiful in your dress and behavior. Your appeal to others will come of your personality, which is the sum of your individual characteristics." (President Gordon B. Hinckley, Stay on the High Road, Ensign, May 2004, 114)

Standards of Conduct and Behaviour

The central purpose of EFY is to help all those attending to 'come unto Christ'. To that end, we strive to create an environment which is safe, and invites revelation. The most important factor in establishing such a climate is YOU!

"Like your dress and grooming, your language and behaviour are expressions of your character. Your words and actions can have a profound influence on you and others." (True to the Faith, 108).

Your positive attitude and your efforts to live by gospel standards will lead to increased guidance and support from the Holy Ghost.
